

American Association of University
Women serving Southwest Colorado

Jenn James Wheeling

lives on the James Ranch where, along with her husband and extended family, they steward the land using regenerative practices.

Writing historical adventure stories about the American West joins her list of creative outlets including horticulture, floral design, and painting.

www.jameswheeling.com

'BOOK & AUTHOR' Fundraiser Luncheon

for the AAUW Butler

Falkenstein Scholarship Fund

Saturday, April 5, 2025
Durango Public Library

Doors open 11:45 am – event ends 2 p.m.

Catering by Zia Taquería

Lecture by local author

Jennifer James Wheeling

'My Journey to the Zephyr Series'

Books forthcoming in the series:

The Gantlet and Kismet

Luncheon + donation ticket: $50

PLEASE RSVP by March 28: spowers98@comcast.net

You may pay with cash or check at the door – or mail a check for your ticket and/or a donation to the scholarship fund to:

Sharon Powers, 14 Salt Brush St., Durango CO 81301